Dear Ms. Salas:

The purpose of this letter is to rescind my letter of 8 September 2000 on the subject topic. My original letter was submitted in error and should have been forwarded through formal channels. I now understand that my concerns will be incorporated as an input to a Department of Defense position paper that would be provided to your agency through the National Telecommunications and Information Administration. I regret that I was not informed of this process earlier and that I sent my letter inappropriately.

If you have any questions, you may call (202) 685-6855 or email me at crowson.fred@hq.navy.mil.

Thank you for your consideration and I apologize for any inconvenience.

Fred Crowson
